

Tavy Walkham and Plym Fishing Club Privacy Policy – Data Protection Act 2018

This document gives details about how the club collects and processes personal data including data collected through the website, from enquiries and from the purchase of permits at the club's agents. It applies to club members and permit holders.

Data Controller - The Tavy Walkham and Plym Fishing Club is the data controller responsible for personal data.

Third party links - This website may include links to third party websites, plug-ins and applications. Clicking on those links or enabling those connections may allow third parties to collect or share personal data. The club does not control these third-party websites and is not responsible for their privacy statements.

The club collects data from members and permit holders in order to manage the club financially and to make catch returns to the Environment Agency and our Landlord.

Personal contact data includes home address, billing address, email address and telephone numbers. Financial transaction data includes details about payments to and from members and permit holders. Bank account and payment card details are not collected. Personal and financial transaction data from providers of payment services is collected from PayPal.

Website personal technical data is not collected.

Personal data is collected on membership application forms, contact forms and in correspondence by post, email or otherwise. This includes personal data provided when a permit is purchased on this website or from the clubs agents.

The club will only use personal data to contact members and permit holders to issue membership cards and permits, when the club needs to comply with legal or regulatory obligations and when requesting annual catch returns.

Personal data is not sold or passed to other organisations.

The club does not send unsolicited email or newsletters.

If you wish to exercise your legal rights under the Data Protection Act 2018, please contact the club using the Contact form.
